

RICHMOND in BUSINESS

— Network Connect Engage —

FIRST EVENT
Friday,
March 22

GUEST SPEAKER
Sir Rod
Eddington AO

The inaugural 2013 Richmond in Business program is an environment for professionals to network, connect and engage.

The program is suitable for all like-minded business people looking to mix in a relaxed, professional sporting atmosphere.

Members of the Richmond in Business program can connect and network at three lunches in 2013, hosted by media personality Hamish McLachlan.

The lunches will feature key guest speakers from business, sporting and entertainment backgrounds, with the first to take place in the lead-up to the 2013 season, followed by a mid-season and post-season lunch.

Single, double and corporate memberships are available, but places are limited. Memberships have been selling very well, so act now to ensure you and your business do not miss out.

About Sir Rod Eddington AO

Rod Eddington is non-executive Chairman (Australia & New Zealand) of J.P. Morgan, Chairman of Infrastructure Australia and non-executive Chairman of Lion.

Educated as an engineer at the UWA and then Oxford University as WA's 1974 Rhodes Scholar, Sir Rod's career began in transport and aviation and he went on to become CEO of Cathay Pacific, Ansett Airlines and British Airways, before retiring in late 2005 and returning to Australia.

In 2005, Sir Rod was awarded a Knighthood by the British Government for service to civil aviation, and in 2012 an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO) for service to business and commerce.

In addition to maintaining non-executive directorships with News Corporation, China Light & Power Holdings and John Swire & Sons, Sir Rod also serves as Chairman of Victorian Major Events Company and President of the Australia Japan Business Cooperation Committee.
